

Wendy Wangberg
5601 NW 121 Avenue, Coral Springs, FL 33076
954/227-0671

Work Experience

2000-present

City Historian, City of Coral Springs, FL

Established Museum of Coral Springs History permanent and traveling exhibits, successfully applied for Florida Heritage Site markers and grants for the museum and Coral Springs Covered Bridge, established outreach programs with schools, scouts and the public. Wrote Images of Coral Springs in 2003 for the city's 40th anniversary. Currently catalog archival materials for preservation and access. Respond to requests for historical information. Write monthly a history column for The Forum newspaper; create annual historical calendars and coloring books.

1999-2000

Weekend Manager, Stranahan House, Fort Lauderdale, FL

Trained and supervised docents, gave private tours, inventoried house furnishings.

1989-1998

Assistant vice-president, Zurich-American Insurance Company, N.Y., NY

Insurance executive specializing in professional liability underwriting and claims.

Other insurance experience.

Education

B.A. cum laude, history

Augsburg College, Minneapolis, MN

Memberships

Founding member of the Gold Coast Archivists

Society of Florida Archivists

Florida Association of Museums

American Association of State and Local History

Friends of Music

Awards

Broward County Historical Commission Historian's Award in 2004

Judge L. Clayton Nance Memorial Award in 2005