SECTION II
AMENDMENT REPORT
PROPOSED AMENDMENT PCNRM 09-1

INTRODUCTORY INFORMATION/PLANNING ANALYSIS

Pursuant to Objective 9.01.00 of the Broward County Land Use Plan, Broward County shall map and maintain a current list of Natural Resource Areas which are considered to be environmentally sensitive lands or designated as Local Areas of Particular Concern within the Broward County Future Land Use Plan Map Series. The proposed revisions are based on the numerous acquisitions of conservation lands and green space through the 2000 Safe Parks and Land Preservation Bond Program. Forty-eight (48) of the total 144 sites are proposed additions to the map. Further, each of these 48 sites being added to the map are publically owned. Two sites were removed from the map, Miramar Regional Park, which is owned by the City of Miramar, and the portion of Mills Pond Park which is owned by the City of Fort Lauderdale and utilized for athletic purposes, as it has been determined that these sites did not meet the Broward County Land Use Plan criteria for such designation. Please see Attachment 3 for the Broward County Land Use Plan criteria for designation of Environmentally Sensitive Lands.

During the update of the map, the Broward County Environmental Protection and Growth Management Department provided a draft of the proposed map changes to all municipalities for their input and received no comment during the review.

Attachment 1 provides a detailed listing of the inventory and proposed changes. Attachment 2 depicts the revised Broward County Environmentally Sensitive Lands Map, dated February 2009.

SECTION IV. PLAN IMPLEMENTATION REQUIREMENTS

D. IMPLEMENTATION REGULATIONS AND PROCEDURES

8. CRITERIA AND PROCEDURES FOR ENVIRONMENTALLY SENSITIVE LANDS AND LOCAL AREAS OF PARTICULAR CONCERN

Broward County will conduct a review of all Natural Resources as defined in the text and depicted on the Natural Resource Map Series of the Broward County Land Use Plan. The review will determine whether such lands are environmentally sensitive and shall provide the basis for the regulation of those lands found to be environmentally sensitive as is required by Section 163.3202, Florida Statutes. The Broward County Commission shall conduct a review of the following maps and, utilizing the criteria enumerated herein or utilizing additional alternative criteria review and approved by the County Commission, make a determination as to whether the designation and regulation of additional Environmentally Sensitive Lands is appropriate:

- a. Existing and Planned Potable Water Wells and Zones of Influence
- b. Wetlands
- c. Flood Plains and Flood Prone Areas
- d. Mineral Resources
- e. Beaches, Rivers, Harbors, Canals, Major Lakes and Estuarine System
- f. Soils
- g. Local Areas of Particular Concern

Local Areas of Particular Concern may be designated in six categories according to the types of resources present. Unless otherwise indicated, LAPCs must have one or more of the characteristics for the respective category.

1. Marine Resource Category

Coastal areas of unique, scarce, fragile, or vulnerable natural habitat, physical features and scenic importance, or; coastal areas of high natural productivity or essential habitat for fish, wildlife, and the various trophic levels in the food web critical to their well being, or; coastal areas of substantial recreational value and/or potential, or; areas needed to protect, maintain, or replenish coastal flood plains, coral and other reefs, beaches, offshore sand deposits and mangrove stands.

2. Natural Landforms and Features Category

A geological, hydrological, or physiographical feature confined to a small area of Broward County and considered quite rare locally or regionally, or; a representative natural ecosystem and/or its units existing in a few isolated locations, but extirpated from most of the county.

3. Native Vegetative Communities Category

(a) A Local Area of Particular Concern (Native Vegetative Communities Category) is an area which shows a predominance of native vegetation associated with one or more of the following ecological communities: Beach and Dune Community; Coastal Strand Forest Community; Mangrove Community (Saltwater Swamp); Scrub Community; Pine Flatwoods Community; High Hammock Community; Low Hammock Community; Cypress Wetland Community (Freshwater Swamp); Everglades Community (Freshwater Marsh).

(b) In addition, a Local Area of Particular Concern (Native Vegetative Communities Category) must satisfy at least three of the following criteria:

- i. Uniqueness - The site contains a significant sample of rare or endangered species, or, the site is among a small number of sites in Broward County representing a particular ecological community.
- ii. Diversity - A significant sample of two or more ecological communities are contained within the site.
- iii. Low Level of Exotic Invasion - The degree and nature of exotic invasion on the site is such that it can be easily managed or mitigated.
- iv. Potential for Protection – Ownership patterns, development status and other factors make the resources of a site likely to be successfully protected.
- v. Geography - The site has proximity to other resources which would heighten its value as a LAPC (e.g., other ESLs, public parks, waterfront).

4. Wildlife Category

Existing wildlife refuges, reserves, and sanctuaries, or; known habitats of rare, threatened, or endangered species or species of special concern, or; major wildlife intensive use areas such as well developed hammock communities, highly productive coastal tidelands, and mangroves, or; areas used for scientific study and research on wildlife.

5. Economic Resource Category

Existing ports, marinas, piers, energy resources, and artificial reefs, or; areas noted for specific study and research concerning economic development.

6. Cultural Resource Category

Sites designated on the National Register of Historic Places or on the Florida Master Site File, or; sites related to the general development of the local area, region, or State, or; buildings which are significant examples of the architectural design of their period, or; sites associated with the life/lives of important person(s), or social, political, cultural, or economic movements or with historical events, or; archaeological sites which have yielded useful information on the area's past. (These sites are depicted on a separate map within the Broward County Future Land Use Plan Map Series: II. Cultural Resources/Local Areas of Particular Concern).
