- 1 a) Color architectural elevations of each façade fronting a public
2 street other than an alley;
3 b) Paint chips and an identification of each building element to be
4 painted with the color indicated on each paint chip; and
5 c) Photographs of the materials to be used for each building
6 element.

8 Section 2. Section 39-133 of the Broward County Code of Ordinances is 9 hereby amended to read as follows:

10 Sec. 39-133. Duty to maintain property; nuisances.

11 . . .

12 (e) It shall be the responsibility of all property owners of developed land to 13 maintain buildings, ~~and structures, and grounds~~ on their property in a state of good
14 repair. "State of good repair" shall mean:

15 . . .

- 16 (4) Site plans. All property, including buildings, structures, and grounds, shall 17 be maintained in accordance with the approved site plan, including, but
18 not limited to, parking and loading areas, ingress and egress, landscaping,

1 Sec. 39-294. General provisions.

2 . . .

3 (n) Design Standards.

4 (1) General purpose and intent. Commercial districts are predominantly
5 located along major roadways with high traffic volumes and visibility. The 6 corridors serve as gateways to the residential neighborhoods and largely
7 establish a community's image. Broward County recognizes it has a
8 responsibility to provide a safe and desirable public realm and that the 9 success of both the residential and commercial districts is related to the 10 provision of high quality urban design. The intent of these design
11 standards is to regulate the design of individual buildings and sites. These 12 design standards shall not regulate signs that are regulated by 13 Chapter 39, Article VI, located within the B-1, B-2, B-3, B-4, RSO, and
14 RMO zoning districts.

15 (2) Compliance. The following projects shall comply with the design
16 standards set forth herein:

17 a. All new buildings and structures for which a development permit is 18 obtained after the effective date of this Ordinance, except signs that
19 are regulated by Chapter 39, Article VI, and located within the B-1,
20 B-2, B-3, B-4, RSO, and RMO zoning districts;

21 b. All commercial economic development projects funded through
22 Broward County;

23 c. All commercial projects that require site plan approval per 24 Section 5-181 of the Broward County Code of Ordinances; and

d. Exterior renovations as follows:

1. Changes to an existing building or structure that meet or exceed the standard of twenty percent (20%) of the existing floor area or twenty percent (20%) of the appraised value of the existing building or structure, as determined by the Broward County Property Appraiser. Changes to the floor area and the appraised value of existing buildings or structures shall be aggregated over a five (5) year period to determine the applicability of the design standards.
2. To the extent not addressed in paragraph 1., existing buildings shall comply within five (5) years after the effective date of this Ordinance.

(3) Administrative Amendment. The Planning and Development Management Division Director, or designee, may approve adjustments to colors that are consistent with the approved design.

(4) Definitions.

- a. Accent color shall mean the color used on wall signs, awnings, and doors.
- b. Banding shall mean horizontal subdivisions of a wall accomplished through a change in profile or a change in materials.
- c. Base color shall mean the color used on the majority of a building's vertical surface.

1 d. Building elements shall mean parts of a building such as walls,
2 bandings, cornices, moldings, parapets, windows, awnings,
3 canopies, roofs, doorjambs, frames, sills, shutters, or fasciae.

4 e. Cornice shall mean a horizontal decorative molding that crowns a
5 building, door, or window.

6 f. Material shall mean the composition of building elements such as
7 metal, brick, stone, wood, and concrete.

8 g. Molding shall mean a decorative raised surface along the edge of 9 an architectural feature such as a wall, door, window, or column.

10 h. Parapet shall mean a low wall or barrier at the edge of the roof.

12
13 i. Texture shall mean the surface characteristics, grains, and patterns
14 of a material, such as striped, blocked, pebbled, brushed, or 15 smooth.

16 j. Transom light shall mean a flat glass panel above a door, usually 17 multipaned.

18 k. Trim color shall mean the color used on windows or doorjambs,
19 frames, sills, shutters, or fasciae.

20 (5) Visual interest. To avoid monotony of design, front and street side exterior
21 walls consisting of a single undifferentiated plane with a single color or
22 texture are prohibited. Differentiation may be achieved by using a
23 combination of ornamentation, pattern, and composition as listed below:

4 (8) Outdoor equipment. Except for rooftop photovoltaic solar systems
5 installed in accordance with Section 39-109 of the Broward County Code
6 of Ordinances, all heating, ventilation, air conditioning, electrical,
7 mechanical, and similar equipment shall be completely screened from
8 view or isolated so as to not be visible from any adjacent public
9 right-of-way or residential zoning district. Any screening shall be designed
10 to maintain a uniform appearance with the rest of the building.

11 (9) Prohibitions. Neon tubing as well as neon, fluorescent, iridescent,
12 metallic, and similar colors are prohibited.

13 (o) Setback Waiver. Required setback distances set forth herein shall be 14 waived by ten percent (10%) up to a maximum of one (1) foot for any existing and
15 completed commercial building or structure that exists prior to the effective date of this
16 Ordinance.

17
18 Section 4. SEVERABILITY.

19 If any portion of this Ordinance is determined by any Court to be invalid, the 20 invalid portion shall be stricken, and such striking shall not affect the validity of the 21 remainder of this Ordinance. If any Court determines that this Ordinance, or any portion
22 hereof, cannot be legally applied to any individual(s), group(s), entity(ies), property(ies),
23 or circumstance(s), such determination shall not affect the applicability hereof to any
24 other individual, group, entity, property, or circumstance.

1 Section 5. INCLUSION IN CODE.

2 It is the intention of the Board of County Commissioners that the provisions of
3 this Ordinance shall become and be made a part of the Broward County Code; and that
4 the sections of this Ordinance may be renumbered or relettered and the word
5 "ordinance" may be changed to "section," "article," or such other appropriate word or
6 phrase in order to accomplish such intentions.

8 Section 6. EFFECTIVE DATE.

9 This Ordinance shall become effective as provided by law.
