Answers To Your Questions About Coverage From Standard Insurance Company

About This Booklet

This booklet is designed to answer some common questions about the group Voluntary Long Term Disability (LTD) insurance coverage being offered by Broward County to eligible employees. It is not intended to provide a detailed description of the coverage.

If coverage becomes effective and you become insured, you will receive a group insurance certificate containing a detailed description of the insurance coverage including the definitions, exclusions, limitations, reductions and terminating events. The controlling provisions will be in the group policy issued by Standard Insurance Company (The Standard). Neither the certificate nor the information presented in this booklet modifies the group policy or the insurance coverage in any way. If you have additional questions, please contact your Employee Benefits representative.

Features of the group Voluntary LTD insurance coverage may vary by state.

Voluntary Long Term Disability Insurance Features

Chances are you already purchase home, auto and life insurance to protect yourself against the threat of loss. And you probably have health insurance to guard against costly medical bills.

So, what steps have you taken to help shield yourself, your lifestyle and those who count on you from an unexpected loss of income? Would you be able to meet your financial obligations if you became disabled and unable to work?

LTD insurance is designed to pay a monthly benefit to you in the event you cannot work because of a covered illness or injury. This benefit replaces a portion of your income, thus helping you to meet your financial commitments in a time of need.

By sponsoring group Voluntary LTD insurance from The Standard, your employer offers you an excellent opportunity to help protect yourself and your lifestyle. The advantages to you include:

- Convenience – With premiums deducted directly from your paycheck, you don't have to worry about mailing monthly payments.
- Savings – Typically, group insurance rates are lower than the rates of individual insurance plans, generally providing you with coverage at a lower cost.
- Peace of mind – You can take comfort and satisfaction in knowing that you have taken a step toward securing your income during a period of disability.

Commonly Asked Questions

The following information provides details to give you a better understanding of group Voluntary LTD insurance available from The Standard. Written in non-technical language, this is not intended as a complete description of the coverage.

Do I Need LTD Insurance?

If you are not certain that you need LTD coverage, consider if you will be able to meet your financial obligations if you become disabled and unable to work for an extended period of time. The risk of disability may be greater than you think. Recent statistics have shown:

- A disabling injury occurs nearly every second of each day - on and off the job. That's more than 70,000 every day, more than 25 million every year.¹
- Over 1 in 4 of today's 20 year-olds will become disabled before they retire.²
- Every 90 seconds someone files for bankruptcy in the wake of a serious illness.³

Am I Eligible For This Coverage?

To be a member and eligible for Voluntary LTD insurance coverage, you must be:

- An active employee in a position which is included in the Broward County Personnel Cap, excluding temporary and seasonal employees;
- Regularly working at least 20 hours each week; and
- A citizen or resident of the United States or Canada.

When Does My Insurance Go Into Effect?

The effective date of your coverage depends on when you become an eligible member, when you apply and whether you are required to provide evidence of insurability.

- If you apply for Voluntary LTD coverage on or before the date you become eligible, and agree to pay premiums, your Voluntary LTD coverage becomes effective on the date you become eligible.
- If you apply for Voluntary LTD coverage after the date you become eligible, and agree to pay premiums, your Voluntary LTD coverage becomes effective on the first day of the calendar month following the date The Standard approves your evidence of insurability.

In every case, you must meet the active work requirement before your insurance becomes effective.

What Is The Active Work Requirement?

Active work means performing with reasonable continuity, the material duties of your own occupation at your employer's usual place of business. You must be capable of active work on the day before the scheduled effective date of your insurance or your insurance will not become effective as scheduled.

- For employees hired on or after July 1, 2007: If you are not actively at work on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance, your insurance will not become effective until the day after you complete one full day of active work as an eligible employee.
- For employees hired prior to July 1, 2007: If you are not actively at work on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance, your insurance will not become effective until the day after you complete five full days of active work as an eligible employee.

Will I Have To Provide Information Regarding My Medical History?

If you apply for Voluntary LTD insurance on or before the date you become eligible and meet the active work requirement, you will automatically qualify to insure predisability earnings up to the guarantee issue amount of 60 percent of the first $10,000 of your monthly predisability earnings, reduced by deductible income. This means that you will not have to submit satisfactory evidence of insurability to purchase coverage up to this amount.

If you apply 31 days after becoming eligible satisfactory evidence of insurability is required. You will need to complete and submit a Medical History Statement. In some cases, we may request additional medical information or a physical exam.

Evidence of insurability is also required for reinstatement of terminated coverage and for members eligible but not insured under your company's prior LTD insurance plan, if any. Visit to access the form: http://www.standard.com/mybenefits/mhs_ho.html

When Do LTD Benefits Become Payable?

If you become disabled and your claim for LTD benefits is approved by The Standard, LTD benefits become payable after you have been continuously disabled for 90 days and remain continuously disabled. LTD benefits are not payable during this benefit waiting period.

When Am I Considered Disabled?

During the first 24 months for which LTD Benefits are paid (60 months for elected officials, administrators, executive managers or professional employees), you are considered disabled if, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation. You are not disabled merely because your right to perform your own occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license.

Thereafter, you are considered disabled if, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder, you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of any occupation which you are able to perform, whether due to education, training or experience.

What Is Partial Disability?

During the benefit waiting period and the own occupation period, you are partially disabled when you work in your own occupation but, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder, you are unable to earn at least 80 percent of your indexed predisability earnings.

During the any occupation period, you are partially disabled when you work in an occupation but, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder, you are unable to earn at least 60 percent of your indexed predisability earnings in that occupation and in all other occupations for which you are reasonably fitted under the any occupation definition of disability.

How Much Is The LTD Benefit Amount?

Your monthly LTD benefit is 60 percent of the first $10,000 of your monthly insured predisability earnings reduced by deductible income. The plan minimum and maximum LTD benefit amounts are indicated below.

Plan Maximum Monthly LTD benefit	Plan Minimum Monthly LTD benefit
$6,000	$100

How Is The LTD Benefit Amount Calculated?

The LTD benefit amount is determined by multiplying your insured predisability earnings by the specified benefit percentage. This amount is then reduced by other income you receive or are eligible to receive while LTD benefits are payable. This other income is referred to as deductible income.

In the example below, the LTD benefit amount is 60 percent of insured predisability earnings. If your monthly earnings (or predisability earnings) before becoming disabled were $4,500 and you now receive a monthly Social Security disability benefit of $1,200 and a monthly state disability benefit of $900, your monthly LTD benefit would be calculated as follows:

Insured predisability earnings	$4,500
LTD benefit percentage	x60%
	$2,700
Less Social Security disability benefit	- $1,200
Less retirement benefit	- $900
Amount of LTD benefit	$600

What Are Predisability Earnings?

Predisability earnings are your monthly rate of earnings from your employer and typically include:

- Salary
- Contributions you make through a salary reduction agreement with your employer to an IRC Section 401(k), 403(b), 408(k), or 457 deferred compensation arrangement, or an executive nonqualified deferred compensation arrangement
- Amounts contributed to fringe benefits according to salary reduction agreements under an IRC Section 125 plan

Predisability earnings exclude bonuses, renewal commissions, overwriting renewal commissions, service fees, shift differential pay, overtime pay, your employer's contribution on your behalf to a deferred compensation arrangement or pension plan or any other extra compensation. They are based on your earnings in effect on the last full day of active work. Please contact your Employee Benefits representative for additional information regarding what is included in predisability earnings.

What Is Deductible Income?

Deductible income is income you receive or are eligible to receive while LTD benefits are payable. It is used to reduce the amount of your LTD benefit and includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Sick pay, vacation pay, or other salary continuation paid by your employer
- Benefits under any workers' compensation law, state disability income benefit law or similar law
- Social Security disability or retirement benefits, including benefits for your spouse and children
- Disability benefits from any other group insurance
- Disability or retirement benefits under your employer's retirement plan
- Benefits under any state disability income benefit law or similar law
- Earnings from work activity while you are disabled
- Earnings or compensation included in your pre-disability earnings and which you receive or are eligible to receive while LTD benefits are payable
- Any amount you receive by compromise, settlement or other method as a result of a claim for any of the above
- Benefits payable for disability caused or contributed to by military service while insured under the group policy

What Is The Maximum Benefit Period?

If you become disabled before age 62, LTD benefits may continue during disability until you reach age 65, or 3 years 6 months, if longer. If you become disabled at age 62 or older, the benefit duration is determined by your age when disability begins as indicated in the table below.

Age When Disability Begins	Maximum Benefit Period
62	3 years 6 months
63	3 years
64	2 years 6 months
65	2 years
66	1 year 9 months
67	1 year 6 months
68	1 year 3 months
69 and above	1 year

- The date your maximum benefit period ends
- The date you die

- If premium payments are made with “after-tax” dollars, LTD benefits are federally tax-free under current federal tax law.
- If your employer makes an approved work-site modification that enables you to return to work while disabled, The Standard will reimburse your employer up to a pre-approved amount for some or all of the cost of the modification.
- If you die while LTD benefits are payable, and on the date you die you have been continuously disabled for at least 180 days, a survivors benefit equal to three times your unreduced LTD benefit may be payable (any survivors benefit payable will first be applied to any overpayment of your claim due to The Standard).
- If the group policy terminates, LTD benefits will continue as long as you are eligible to receive them.
- Waiver Of Premium while LTD benefits are payable.
