PROPOSED AMENDMENT PCT 18-4

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The Broward County Board of County Commissioners adopted the update of the BrowardNext - Broward County Land Use Plan at its April 25, 2017, public hearing. While the update was unanimously supported at the Planning Council's second public hearing on March 23, 2017, some members expressed additional comments. In consultation with the Planning Council Attorney, it was determined that the comments were substantive in nature and would require public outreach and review. The member comments were then sent to all Planning Council members over a period of several months for their review and any additional comments. Subsequently, at its October 26, 2017, meeting, the Broward County Planning Council initiated an amendment to strengthen newly adopted Policy 2.9.3 regarding opposition to any type of fracturing (i.e. fracking) or other well stimulation. See Attachment 1 for the proposed text amendment.

PUBLIC OUTREACH

Planning Council staff distributed the text amendment through email communication in December of 2017 to all municipal mayors, managers and planning directors, as well as interested parties. See Attachment 2. No substantive comments have been received as of this date.

RECOMMENDATION

Planning Council staff recommends that the proposed amendment to the BrowardNext – Broward County Land Use Plan be approved.

Good morning—

At its October 26, 2017, meeting, the Broward County Planning Council initiated a text amendment to strengthen Policy 2.9.3 regarding the County's opposition to hydraulic fracturing (fracking). The proposed Policy revision follows in a bold and underline format:

Policy 2.9.3 Broward County continues to oppose and prohibits in any land use category the use of hydraulic fracturing, acid fracturing, and any form of extreme well stimulation for the purposes of resource extraction.

Please submit any comments regarding the proposal no later than January 19, 2018.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Barbara
