b. By two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Committee, the Committee may add additional groups that may nominate Representative Members. The Chair shall notify the Board of County Commissioners and County Attorney if any additional groups have been added and, by majority vote, the County Commission may nullify the addition of any group. A group added pursuant to this paragraph should be experienced in legal matters, must be a bona fide entity representing community interests, and may not endorse candidates or be parent to, subsidiary of, or be in formal legal affiliation with organizations that endorse Candidates.

(2) Honorary Members. The Committee may, by majority vote, nominate up to three (3) Honorary Members. While not representative of any particular group, Honorary Members should be those who have provided a lifetime of service to the community and who have an outstanding reputation and unimpeachable credibility. Examples of possible Honorary Members include, but are not limited to, retired judges, former elected officials,
