MEMORANDUM

January 20, 2019

TO: Board of County Commissioners

FROM: Norman Foster, Director
Office of Management and Budget N.F.

SUBJECT: Fiscal Impact Statement Re: Proposed Ordinance for Repeal of Ordinances Related to the Neighborhood Enhancement Program

Summary

The proposal repeals the following ordinances: 97-03, 2001-07, 2002-44, 2003-05, 2003-26, 2004-06, 2004-12, 2005-05, 2006-02, 2006-03, 2007-03, 2008-50, 2009-24, 2010-60. These ordinances relate to the establishment and creation of the Neighborhood Preservation and Enhancement Program, Neighborhood Preservation and Enhancement Districts, and Neighborhood Enhancement Plans. In September 2012, the Board enacted Ordinance No. 2012-25 creating the Central County Community Overlay District in the Broward Municipal Services District neighborhoods of Washington Park, Roosevelt Gardens, Boulevard Gardens, and Franklin Park. The Central County Community Overlay District incorporates the requirements of the Neighborhood Enhancement Plans, therefore making retention of the Neighborhood Enhancement Plans redundant.

Fiscal Impact

There is no fiscal impact to Broward County related to enforcement of this ordinance.
